

Regional Representative: VIC / TAS

About This Document

This role description was compiled primarily to inform occupants, and prospective occupants, of the above-named role of the scope, duties and responsibilities of the role. Additionally, it can inform fellow members of AusAPT's Management Committee and other interested parties.

This role description draws from AusAPT's Constitution and from the NSW Fair Trading Management Committee page.

This document was last revised on 15 July 2021.

AusAPT

The Australian Association for Psychological Type Inc (AusAPT) is a membership association incorporated in New South Wales under the Associations Incorporation Act 2009, administered by NSW Fair Trading.

AusAPT has members across Australia and offshore. AusAPT is managed and run by volunteers.

Management Committee

The Management Committee is AusAPT's governing body or board. It is comprised of office bearers and regional representatives who each serve for a term of approximately two years.

The office bearers are President, Past President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer.

The regional representatives currently represent AusAPT members in the following regions:

- New South Wales and Australian Capital Territory
- Victoria and Tasmania
- Queensland, Western Australia, South Australia and Northern Territory
- locations outside Australia.

The Management Committee is chaired by the President. All members of the Committee have equal voting rights. Management Committee meetings are usually held online. The Constitution requires the Committee to meet at least three times a year: currently, it meets every two months, or as otherwise required.

Role-Specific Responsibilities

AusAPT's Regional Representative: [REDACTED] represents AusAPT and supports AusAPT members in Victoria and Tasmania ('the region').

Responsibilities include:

- serve as a point of contact for AusAPT members and prospective members in the region
- consult AusAPT members in the region on the association's services, initiatives and activities
- represent the needs of AusAPT members in the region in Management Committee meetings
- represent and promote AusAPT in the region
- liaise and develop relationships with prospective partner organisations in the region
- plan and coordinate online and in-person events for AusAPT members in the region
- serve as an 'on the ground' representative for occasional AusAPT conferences in the region

Collegiate Committee Responsibilities

In addition to the specific functional responsibilities outlined above, this role also shares with fellow members of the Management Committee a range of responsibilities under the Act, including:

- ensuring all Association documents in their possession are delivered to the Public Officer within 14 days after vacating office
- ensuring that the register of Committee members contains all the required particulars
- disclosing an interest in a matter that conflicts with the performance of their duties
- ensuring information obtained as a Committee member is not used dishonestly
- ensuring their position as a Committee member is not used dishonestly
- carry out his or her functions for the benefit of the Association and with due care and diligence
- appointing a Public Officer and ensuring that any vacancy is filled within 28 days
- appointing additional authorised signatories and removing such appointments
- ensuring that annual general meetings are held within 6 months after the close of the financial year
- ensuring minutes and financial records are kept and financial statements prepared in accordance with requirements
- lodging an annual summary of financial affairs within one month of the Association's AGM
- ensuring that the Association's full name appears on all official documents and publications
- ensuring that the Association does not incur debts that are not expected to be repaid
- ensuring that the Association does not do any act with intent to defraud
- ensuring that any document addressed to the Association is brought to the attention of the Committee
- complying with any additional duty set out in the Constitution.

Appointment Process

Appointments to this role are made by nomination or, in the event of a casual vacancy, by a resolution of the Management Committee.

The terms of this and other Management Committee roles begin and end at the annual general meetings in alternate (even-numbered) years. As AGMs may be held at any suitable date between July and December, the terms may be more or less than two years.

Prior to the AGM, nominations are invited from AusAPT members. In the (rare) event of more than one nomination for a role, a ballot of members is held. The appointment of nominated or elected Management Committee members is formalised by a resolution at the AGM.

If a Management Committee member resigns or otherwise leaves their role before the end of their term, the remaining members of the Management Committee may fill the casual vacancy by way of a resolution.
